

WHERE SHOULD YOU SALT?

1. First, remove as much snow as you can using a shovel or a scraper.
2. Then, apply salt ONLY to the areas with icy patches where people walk or drive.

This helps prevent waste and stops excess salt from entering the environment.
Remember, more is not always better!

Circle all of the areas where it is okay to safely use salt.

